September 14, 2011

The long hot summer seems to be over. We may get to fly in some decent weather.

The fields have been a challenge. The watering of Festival Fields in Avondale has been contracted out by the city and the watering has lasted to past 7:00 AM every day. Also, the use of the Farm field at the Westside Complex has been available only occasionally. A few of us did manage to use the Farm on a few occasions and found the field to be excellent with short grass and plenty of space that could accommodate about four circles.

Leroy Black and Lou Wolgast made it to the contest in Dallas at the end of August. The weather gave them a significant wind challenge. Leroy took first in Classic and Lou took two thirds in Old Time and Expert. Unfortunately, there were some spectacular crashes.

PAMPA has made a few changes to the Old Time Stunt rules. These rules will be in effect at the next VSC in March of 2012. They are: add five points if you built your own model, no flap points changed from ten to five points and Diesel engine points are changed from ten to five.

The VSC committee is considering adding another member to the committee. All members of the committee make significant work contributions to the success of the contest. If anyone is willing to work their you-know-what off during the entire week of VSC, please submit your name to a current member. The members are: Leroy Black, John Callentine, Ken Gulliford, Jim Hoffman, Nick Lemak, Robin Sizemore, Mark Smith and Lou Wolgast.

Ted the

Another NATS is over and I was exhausted. I did the NATS NEWS coverage for both CL and RC. SCALE Like what do I know about RC? I had a great time and think I did good, but four 12 hour days of shooting, notes, and write-ups is a bit much for the old bones. The NATS News is the go-to place in-depth.

Next year I will be bringing planes and flying only. CL week followed and except for stunt I got a number of some good pictures. For this newsletter I can only provide a splash of photos.

Doing the CACLA, scale and navy carrier newsletters is too much. I will be competing my agreement for the NASA newsletter in December, but stay with this newsletter and the Navy Carrier Society newsletter.

Arizona did ok at the NATS, considering that only 3 of us competed. If I missed someone let me know. No one in scale, combat or speed, expect Steve Stewart—ex-patriot now living in Indianapolis took 8th in F2D combat. Steve Eichenberger won first in Rat Racing and 7th in Slow Rat. I took a 1st in Class II Nostalgia Carrier with Martinez Helldiver, and 3rd in Class I Nostalgia Carrier with Domizi Guardian. Keith Trostle took 1st in Classic Stunt with very tried and true Rabe Bearcat and 4th in Old Time stunt with his Nacarrato Big Job.

Our club decided to not do Cabin Fever in 2012 but we are working on bringing back the Southwick Stunt in early spring. Cheers Ted the Ed

Slick stunters at the NATS are well covered. In Stunt News. I caught the lonely practice of flight after flight preparation.

Our magnificent control line CD, Brenda Schuette kept us all in line (so to speak!)

New Mexico Coalition of Control Line Addicts

held the High Desert Control Line Fiesta at Maloof Field in Albuquerque on 20 and 21 August. There were 17 contestants and numerous family members from New Mexico, Texas, Colorado, Arizona, and Nevada attending. Flying conditions were great both days with light winds, relatively cool temperatures, and the monsoon rains of the season limited to evening hours. A taco dinner for contestants, volunteers and their families was hosted by Emily Salinas and Jim Snelson on Friday evening and Gary and Judy Marchand once again provided a barbeque dinner at their home on Saturday evening. It was a wonderful opportunity to visit, renew old friendships and make new ones.

Bill Bischoff attended from Garland, Texas. He brought a couple of new airplanes – the first contest for each one. His new Zero A6M3 Model 32 is a built-up wing development from the Zero he was flying last year. In Nostalgia Profile, Bill entered a Dumas Crusader, built from the kit. This model has a special nostalgic significance for Bill. It was a Dumas Crusader that he flew in his first Carrier contest in 1986. Carrier as flown on Sunday with the following results:

Apollo Field is located on the west side of Woodley Ave. between Victory Blvd. & Burbank Blvd. in Van Nuys, Ca.

Ted, I have been wandering around the country for most of the summer, but we are heading for Arizona next week. I'll be at the October meeting. If there is anything I can do let me know. Here is a picture from the museum at Paine Field in Everett Washington. Hard to believe but it is a BF 109 E. See you all soon Ivan

We are all getting more and more of these slick, two sided ad-cards in the mail. I really like them. I you are not fully email for your contest flyers you might want to try them.

The LA-5 should take care of him. Ted.

NATS Speed — Jumble of dollies, little bitty airplanes, moving at speeds that are really hard to photo graph. But sure is fun to watch the foot shuffle in the center.
